

Present Perfect (+) · Passive · Phrasal Verbs

Grammar · B1

Present Perfect (+): Life Experiences

1 Sentence Completion

1 Possible answers:

have visited

've visited

2 Possible answers:

has tried

's tried

3 Possible answers:

have watched

've watched

4 Possible answers:

has met

's met

5 Possible answers:

have eaten

've eaten

2 Multiple Choice

1 a

'have gone' — affirmative present perfect for life experiences using 'have' + past participle with 'twice'.

2 a

'has visited' — affirmative present perfect for life experiences using 'has' + past participle with 'so far'.

3 c

'have traveled' — affirmative present perfect for life experiences using 'have' + past participle with 'up to now'.

4 c

'has seen' — affirmative present perfect for life experiences using 'has' + past participle with 'before'.

5 c

'have gone' — affirmative present perfect for life experiences using 'have' + past participle with 'three times'.

Passive: Past Simple

3 Sentence Transformation

- 1 The novel was written by the author in 2020.
- 2 The order was taken by the waiter quickly.
- 3 The vase was broken by the children accidentally.
- 4 The employees were given a bonus by the manager.
- 5 The winner was chosen by the jury yesterday.

4 Sentence Completion

- 1 was made
- 2 were sent
- 3 Possible answers:
was not cleaned
wasn't cleaned
- 4 was written
- 5 were parked

Phrasal Verbs: Separable (Transitive)

5 Word Ordering

- 1 She turned it off.
- 2 Possible answers:
He picked the book up.
He picked up the book.
- 3 We put them on.

- 4 Possible answers:
She called the doctor up.
She called up the doctor.

- 5 Possible answers:
I took the hat off.
I took off the hat.

6 True / False

- 1 False
The passage says the noun object can go before the particle or after the particle.
- 2 True
The passage says the noun object can go before the particle or after the particle.
- 3 False
The passage states that the pronoun object goes between the verb and the particle.
- 4 True
The passage states that the pronoun object goes between the verb and the particle.
- 5 True
The passage says the noun object can go before the particle or after the particle.